MOM EXCHANGE

A SITE WE LOVE

onemorestory.com, a refreshingly simple site, offers a virtual bookshelf of well-chosen children's picture books that are read aloud slowly in a clear voice. And if your budding bibliophile wants to do the reading himself, just select the "I Can Read" mode. Not quite as lovely as a real book, and it costs $44/year, but not a bad price for dozens of books (and a lot closer to home than the library).
